DY School Administration & DY School Committee,

By way of this letter I would like to request approval for the D-Y Winter Guard to stay overnight and travel to the WGI Regionals in Holland PA. We would leave late morning on Friday March 25th and return Sunday March 27th. Transportation will be provided by Cape Destinations (mini-coach) and the group will be staying at a hotel (yet to be booked) within a ½ hour drive to Holland PA. Please see the attached paperwork for additional information.

The overnight trip will be open to any student who is participating in the D-Y Winter Percussion. We anticipate there will be about 12 participating students. There will be three staff and two parents as chaperones.

The cost of the trip will be approximately $400 per student. There will be opportunities for students to fundraise the full amount of the trip should they choose to do so.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me, and thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Alexander M. Pendleton

A Proposal for Dennis-Yarmouth Regional High School Winter Guard
To attend the Winter Guard International Guard Finals
In Holland, PA March 25-27 2022

The Winter Guard ensemble competes regularly on the New England Scholastic Band Association (NESBA) circuit. Winter Guard International (WGI) is the consummate leader and authority of high school Guard in the world. (Most other associations, such as NESBA base their programs on what WGI is currently doing, and even use WGI scoring sheets and philosophies.). Dennis-Yarmouth Regional High School Winter Guard is eligible to compete at the Holland PA Regionals this year.

Attendance at WGI Finals will prove to be an extremely beneficial experience for all the members of Winter Guard. These students work so closely together that they indeed become like a family by the end of the season and push each other to successfully overcome each challenge as it occurs. They will get a chance to see what schools across the globe are accomplishing in their Guard programs, and meet their true peers in the best performance situation imaginable. When we aspire to be the best we can be at something, what better way to be inspired than to take advantage of the opportunity to share the world stage with the best in the world at the activity!

D-Y Guard students are highly motivated, excellent achievers and they draw deep inspiration from seeing how others interpret indoor marching Guard from a different perspective. No other school on Cape Cod even have winter guard let alone are going to WGI World Championships, so for them to be able to represent the community of Dennis-Yarmouth Regional and Cape Cod at a world-class event, would be the pinnacle of their achievements, and an invaluable real-life experience that they will carry with them for the rest of their lives. I can also attest that the increased zeal that all the students have for color guard in Dennis-Yarmouth Regional has directly led to higher levels of proficiency and dedication in the year following a trip to WGI Finals. This experience will be pure inspiration.

What this trip will involve is:

About 12 Students, Guard Director Kevin Karras, Assistant Directors Tyler and Ashley Karras, and 2 parent chaperones will leave Dennis-Yarmouth Regional High School at approximately 10:00a.m. on Friday March 25th and travel by coach bus to Holland, PA. Preliminary rounds of competition will be held the morning of Saturday March 26th. The next round of competitions will be the Finals, held Sunday the 27th. For our return, we expect to depart Holland, PA after we perform on Sunday return to Dennis-Yarmouth Regional at approximately mid evening.

As soon as this trip is approved, we will send in the application and fee to attend Regionals, so that we're able to secure a spot in the roster, and be eligible to begin the planning phase of the trip. Hotels in Holland, PA will have to be contacted, and we expect to use Cape Destinations Bus Company to be our carrier.

Cost will be expected to be approximately $400 per student, which will cover transportation, hotel room, most food, activities, and tickets. Fundraising opportunities will be made available to all students. Special consideration will be made by the Band Parents Organization for those students in financial need.

This trip will be an amazing musical and educational experience for everyone.
